

To enroll, visit

www.forensicsinstitute.org

Business Continuity Plan/Disaster Recovery Training for Financial Institutions

About this training

This course is valuable for anyone involved in governance and Risk Management including those responsible for: ICT (Information and Communication Technology) Service Delivery, Line and Project management, Facilities, Human Resources and Finance.

Who is the target audience?

This course is valuable for anyone involved in governance and Risk Management including those responsible for: ICT (Information and Communication Technology) Service Delivery, Line and Project management, Facilities, Human Resources and Finance.

Learning Outcomes

- i. Implement a Business Continuity Management Systems(BCMS)
- ii. Set BCM in the Organizational context
- iii. Perform Business Impact Analysis (BIA) to identify business priorities and mission critical assets
- iv. Coordinate the response following an incident
- v. Text, maintain, and improve the BCMS
- vi. Restore critical Processed assets following a disaster
- vii. Testing a Business Continuity Program/Disaster Recovery Program.

"This training was interactive, practical and on point. It has equipped me with knowledge on risk assessment and disaster management hence a good initiative that has enabled me as an employee to know the capabilities of NMS to continue in service delivery, in case of a disaster."

Robert Tumwijukye
Senior Risk Management and Compliance Officer
National Medical Stores

Duration and Fee

Duration: 1 Day (28th February)

Venue: Institute of Forensics & ICT Security

Fee: Ugx. 500,000 per person at the Institute.
OR Custom in house training at a venue of your choice
Fee: Negotiable.

For Inquiries, booking and more information,

email: deborah@forensicsinstitute.org or admissions@forensicsinstitute.org

Call: 0784270586/ 0393517236